Veteran Discount Program

RETURN THE F.A.V.O.R.

The "RETURN THE F.A.V.O.R." (Find & Assist Vets of Record) Discount Program, provides picture I.D. cards to honorably discharged veterans. The County Clerk has recruited over 600 local merchants who agree to honor the card by providing holders with a discount on goods or services. This unique collaborative effort between business and government, allows us to "return the favor" to the veterans who have sacrificed so much to ensure our freedom.

To qualify, veterans must appear at the County Clerk's office and file their Honorable Discharge papers (DD-214's) and present their driver's license proving Rockland County residency. The DD-214 is then filed and the veteran will be provided with a free F.A.V.O.R. I.D. card. (See detailed instructions below)

The program originated in Rockland County in the Office of Rockland County Clerk Donna G. Silberman in 2008. Since then, 50 of 62 New York State counties have joined Rockland in launching their own "RETURN THE F.A.V.O.R." programs. To date, County Clerks throughout New York State have collectively registered approximately 50,000 veterans and 5,000 business discounts. The program has also been replicated in 4 nearby counties in New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

VETERAN INSTRUCTIONS: HOW TO OBTAIN A FAVOR DISCOUNT CARD:

To receive your card, bring YOUR DD-214, along with your driver's license or other government-issued picture I.D containing your address., to our office, located on the 1st floor of the Rockland County Courthouse. It can best be accessed in the rear lot of the County Office Building at 11 New Hempstead Road.

Hours for card issue are Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

There is no fee to receive your initial card, however there will be a $5.00 fee to replace a lost card. There is no expiration date.

Current discounts will be listed at www.rocklandcountyclerk.com.

Questions can be directed to the County Clerk's Office at (845) 638-5076 or by email rocklandcountyclerk@co.rockland.ny.us.
